Hello! My name is Joshua Perry. I am sixteen years old and I live in Manchester, England with my parents, my sister Ally and my dog Rover. After school and at weekends, I work as a cashier at Tesco in Manchester, a famous supermarket chain in the UK.

I work 20 hours a week, for £3.80 an hour. (€ 4,40)

On Mondays, Thursdays and Fridays I work from 4:00pm to 6:00pm and from 1:00pm to 5:00pm on Wednesdays and I also work on Saturdays from 12:00pm to 6:00pm.

I hate this job because I always have to walk all day and I have to be nice and polite to angry customers.

I also don't like my boss because he is very strict. But I like my co-workers, they are very nice.

I always work on Saturday so I can't see my friends and go to the skatepark or to Mac Donald's or even play videogames.

I do my homework after work so I go to bed late. As a result, I usually feel tired in the morning.

The only advantage of working at Tesco is just to have money to buy clothes and videogames ... and I would like to buy my first car next year.

My dream job would be to work with animals and be a veterinarian.
