

Area	Descriptor level 2	Descriptor level 1
Description of the activity	There is a description of the activity (including a title) and it is clear enough what the activity is about, what the objectives are, what skills and competencies students will be developing (coding, computational thinking, digital creativity and/or critical thinking) and when the activity will take place.	There is no description of the activity OR it is not clear enough.
Objectives of the activity	The objectives of the activity are listed and are clear. (They are easy to understand and they are included in the description).	No, the objectives are not listed in the description.
Coding, computational thinking and digital creativity	The activity addresses the development of coding, computational thinking, and/or digital creativity, for example by analyzing and adapting algorithms	No, the activity does not address the development of these competencies, for example: in the activity students only listen passively or the activity does not mention coding, computational thinking, and/or digital creativity.
Critical thinking	Yes, the activity helps students develop critical thinking. For example, the activity helps students think, reflect, innovate, etc. about the topic of the activity.	No, for example, the activity does not help students develop critical thinking skills.
Starting/ending date of the activity	The starting and ending date of the activity happen between 16th September and 23rd December.	The starting and ending date of the activity do not happen between 16th September and 23rd December.
General requirements	Yes, the activity meets the above-mentioned requirements.	No, the activity does not meet the above-mentioned requirements. (Please note that, if you select this option, the participant in question will not be awarded a course certificate ).