

1. Complète les phrases avec la forme appropriée de [be allowed to/ be forbidden to]
2. When I was small, I.....to watch a little bit of TV in the evening.
3. In Victorian times, children.....speak at table.
4. Women.....vote for a long time. Nowadays, it's their duty as every single civil citizen.
5. In the 1950's, black Americans.....not.....sit in the bus front rows.
6. In this dystopian world, reading books and listening to music.....

[Should/could/must + have + participle passé]

2.Réagis aux questions en reconnaissant tes torts et donne une raison

- a) Why didn't you talk to her ? She is your best friend !
I know, I should have.....
- b) Why didn't you tell your parents ?
You're right. I could have.....
- c) Why didn't you come to my party ?
I'm sorry, I must have.....

.....

1.Complète les phrases avec la forme appropriée de [be allowed to/ be forbidden to]

1. When I was small, I.....to watch a little bit of TV in the evening.
2. In Victorian times, children.....speak at table.
3. Women.....vote for a long time. Nowadays, it's their duty as every single civil citizen.
4. In the 1950's, black Americans.....not.....sit in the bus front rows.
5. In this dystopian world, reading books and listening to music.....

[Should/could/must + have + participle passé]

2.Réagis aux questions en reconnaissant tes torts et donne une raison

- a) Why didn't you talk to her ? She is your best friend !
I know, I should have.....
- b) Why didn't you tell your parents ?
You're right. I could have.....
- c) Why didn't you come to my party ?
I'm sorry, I must have.....