

Grammar point: Comparison using like, unlike, whereas, both

Fill in the gaps with whereas, like, unlike, both

a. _____ Jeremy, Leila is a bit touchy.

=> They are _____ a bit touchy.

_____ Leila, Jeremy likes listening to music on a Saturday.

=> They _____ like listening to music.

b. _____ Jeremy, Leila can't live without books and magazines.

c. Jeremy enjoys helping around the house, _____ Leila enjoys learning about things.

Like= _____

Like Leila, Jeremy ...

Unlike= _____

Unlike Leila, Jeremy ...

Whereas= _____

Jeremy ..., whereas Leila ...

L'utilisation de "both" (= _____)

- They are both a bit touchy.

"Both" est toujours _____ "be".

- They both like listening to music.

"Both" est toujours _____ les autres verbes et auxiliaires.

Fill in the gaps with whereas, like, unlike, both

a. _____ Jeremy, Leila is a bit touchy.

=> They are _____ a bit touchy.

_____ Leila, Jeremy likes listening to music on a Saturday.

=> They _____ like listening to music.

b. _____ Jeremy, Leila can't live without books and magazines.

c. Jeremy enjoys helping around the house, _____ Leila enjoys learning about things.

Like= _____

Like Leila, Jeremy ...

Unlike= _____

Unlike Leila, Jeremy ...

Whereas= _____

Jeremy ..., whereas Leila ...

L'utilisation de "both" (= _____)

- They are both a bit touchy.

"Both" est toujours _____ "be".

- They both like listening to music.

"Both" est toujours _____ les autres verbes et auxiliaires.