Angekommen in ... (Arrived at ... North Rhine-Westphalia) Education, Support and Consultation for young refugees

*Arrived at ...

- The Ministry of Education and Further Education of North-Rhine Westphalia and the Walter-Blüchert Foundation developed a new concept for young refugees
- The Walter-Blüchert Foundation got in touch with districts and municipalities and made an agreement with e.g. the Stadt Dortmund (town in the Ruhr area, approx. 600.000 inhabitants)
- The Minister of Education, Sylvia Löhrmann, signed the first agreement in February 2015
- The Arrived at-Program started in August 2015
- Target group: new arrived refugees between the age of 16 25
- Several municipalities have followed ...

*Arrived at ...

- *Partners: MSW Walter-Blüchert Foundation -municipality or districts
- *Core concern: support for young refugees and immigrants to stabilise their life situation and to get a school-leaving qualification prerequisite for a vocational training or an academic qualification
- *Based on two pillars: inidvidual support for a quick qualification and individual treatment at a safe place after lessons
- *financed by the Walter-Blüchert Foundation, the municipality and the Ministry of Education (responsible teacher)
