

Air pollution

Air pollution is the principal cause of pollution the carbon emissions is the principal cause of the global warming and drought the cause of air pollution is the car because the car use fuel and human industried the fuel increase the carbon emissions and for decrease the carbon emissions i can use bikecycle and organise an awareness campaign for sensitive the population and recycle the plastic and wastewater find idea for stop forest fire and encourage the population for recycle wastes and installing wind turbine for a great futur.

