

A Exprimer la possession à l'aide des déterminants possessifs et du génitif

Déterminants possessifs

- my
- your
- his / her / its
- our
- your
- their

Possesseur féminin → HER Possesseur masculin → HIS
PEU IMPORTE L'OBJET POSSÉDÉ

Génitif

nom + 's

1 Complète avec le déterminant possessif qui convient.

- a. Lisa lives in the Caribbean with family. She has two brothers. names are Max and John.
- b. Do you know Paul? He's best friend at school. He walks to school because school is close to house. It's far from house so I take the bus.
- c. My parents often go diving: it's passion, but my brother and I don't like it! He's not sporty: passion is reading, and hobby is swimming.

2 Transforme l'expression au génitif en utilisant un déterminant possessif.

a. Caroline's best friend

→

b. Me and my sister's dog

→

c. My brothers' favourite sport

→

3 Écris des phrases pour dire ce qu'ont Jaden et Kate. Utilise le génitif, puis un déterminant possessif.

Ex. It's Kate's basketball. → It's her basketball.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....