

Halloween

Challenge 1

textbook p. 148 Label the picture.

pumpkin

candy

vampire

bat

witch

broom

devil

skull

haunted castle

moon

cemetery

Jack o'lantern

tombstone

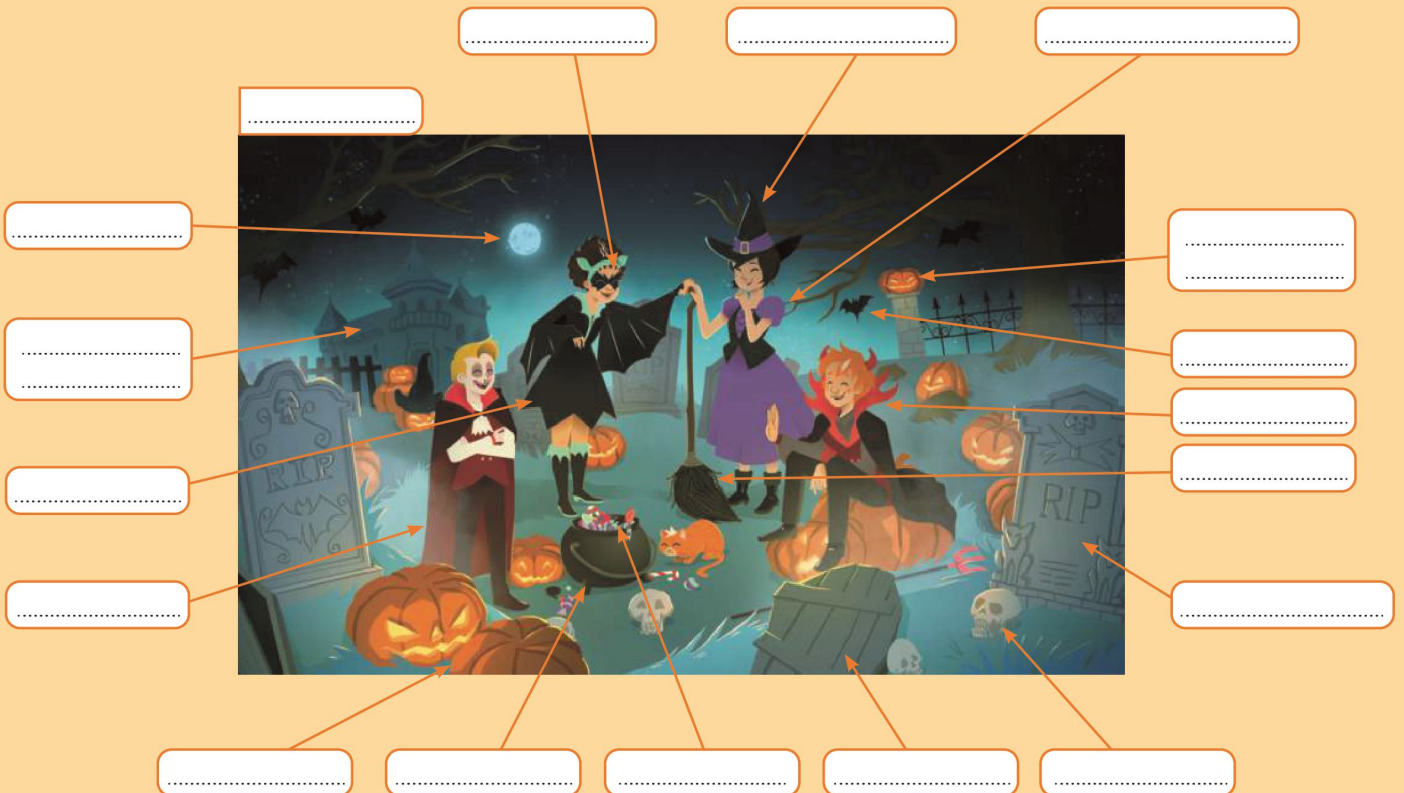

mask

costume

coffin

black hat

cauldron

Challenge 2

textbook p. 148

a. Read the text.

Halloween is the Celtic Festival of the Dead on the evening of the 31st of October. According to some legends, Halloween started in Ireland 2000 years ago. The first celebration started in Scotland and Ireland, and later on emigrated to the United States in the 18th century. Children dress up in spooky costumes to scare the ghosts and spirits and go trick or treating.

- Complete the grid.

HALLOWEEN
What?
Where?
When did it start?
PRESENT TRADITIONS
.....

- Read the text and underline the verbs of action. Then, match each verb with the corresponding picture.

"Trick or treat" is a fun Halloween tradition. When children knock on the door, they say "trick or treat". They get candy. "Trick" means a funny or silly joke, and "treat" means candy or something nice. It's just a fun way to get candy on Halloween!

a.

b.

c.