

Watching football is a Thanksgiving tradition.

By Leah Asmelash

Published 8:00 AM EST, Wed November 22, 2023

Thanksgiving, for many in the US, usually means a few things: food, family... and football. Every year, millions watch the annual Thanksgiving NFL games. In 2022, an audience of 42.1 million people watched the Dallas Cowboys and the New York Giants. It became the most-watched NFL regular season game in history.

By comparison, 33.8 million watched President Joe Biden's inauguration.

-
1. Highlight the names of two American football teams.
 2. According to Leah Asmelash, what do American people do for Thanksgiving ?

3. How many people watched the Dallas Cowboys and the New York Giants in 2022 ?

Vocabulary :

According to: selon

to mean : signifier

to become (became, become) : devenir

The most-watched : le plus regardé

→ Best NFL (National Football L league) plays in history

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yL-4vY9BWL0>