i. China to host world's first humanoid robot games

Beijing is set to host the World Humanoid Robot Games on August 15-17, 2025. This will be the first global sporting event dedicated solely to humanoid robots. Reports said the games will feature 19 events across three main categories: athletic competitions, performance showcases, and scenario-based challenges.

j. Summer movies are officially back. When was the last time we had such a strong blockbuster season lineup going into the season? Yes, there was Barbenheimer back in 2023. In 2025, early signals suggest that the summer war for multiplex supremacy is going to rage on for months. For one, we've got two of the most hotly anticipated comic book movies since Avengers: Endgame in Superman and The Fantastic Four: First Steps.

k CHAPPELL ROAN - Unique show in France in 2025 !

Here's the ultimate only-in-America success story: how to become a global pop star (almost) overnight. And yet, Chappell Roan didn't just come out of nowhere. Her first steps in music date back to 2014, with a track posted on YouTube. This Missouri native faced more than her share of trials and tribulations before climbing to the top of the charts: heartbreaks, being dropped by her first label and a string of odd jobs to make ends meet.

l. Arthur's seat in Edinburgh on fire: A wildfire at an iconic beauty spot overlooking the Scottish capital of Edinburgh had largely been brought under control on Monday after tourists and walkers were forced to evacuate while firefighters battled the flames.
