

European Union Map Activity

In this activity, the children have to solve the clue to find the answer to the countries in the EU. They can use the year which that country joined to help them. Here are the answers to the clues:

Mozart was born here. (1995)	Austria
Famous for its chocolate. (1952)	Belgium
Its capital is Sofia. (2007)	Bulgaria
Located underneath Slovenia. (2013)	Croatia
Known as the 'Island of love.' (2004)	Republic of Cyprus
Its capital is Prague. (2004)	Czech Republic
Vikings originated from here. (1973)	Denmark
Its capital is Tallinn. (2004)	Estonia
Come here to see the amazing Northern Lights. (1995)	Finland
Home of the Eiffel Tower. (1952)	France
Formally divided by the Berlin Wall. (1952 & 1990)	Germany
Country made up of nearly 6000 islands. (1981)	Greece
Its capital is Budapest. (2004)	Hungary
Said to be the home of the leprechauns. (1973)	Ireland
Famous for its iconic food: pizza. (1952)	Italy
Its capital is Riga. (2004)	Latvia
Located between Latvia, Belarus and Poland. (2004)	Lithuania
Tiny country bordered by Belgium, France and Germany. (1952)	Luxembourg
Its capital is Valletta. (2004)	Malta
Clogs, or wooden shoes, are a symbol of this country. (1952)	Netherlands
A country to the right of Germany. (2004)	Poland
Its capital is Lisbon. (1986)	Portugal
Known for the forested region of Transylvania. (2007)	Romania
Its capital is Bratislava. (2004)	Slovakia
Situated above Croatia. (2004)	Slovenia
The home of the bull fight. (1986)	Spain
Another home of the Vikings situated between Finland and Norway. (1995)	Sweden

European Union Map Activity

Solve the clues to discover which countries are in the EU. You can use the year that country joined to help too. Here are the clues:

Mozart was born here. (1995)
Famous for its chocolate. (1952)
Its capital is Sofia. (2007)
Located underneath Slovenia. (2013)
Known as the 'Island of love.' (2004)
Its capital is Prague. (2004)
Vikings originated from here. (1973)
Its capital is Tallinn. (2004)
Come here to see the amazing Northern Lights. (1995)
Home of the Eiffel Tower. (1952)
Formally divided by the Berlin Wall. (1952 & 1990)
Country made up of nearly 6000 islands. (1981)
Its capital is Budapest. (2004)
Said to be the home of the leprechauns. (1973)
Famous for its iconic food: pizza. (1952)
Its capital is Riga. (2004)
Located between Latvia, Belarus and Poland. (2004)
Tiny country bordered by Belgium, France and Germany. (1952)
Its capital is Valletta. (2004)
Clogs, or wooden shoes, are a symbol of this country. (1952)
A country to the right of Germany. (2004)
Its capital is Lisbon. (1986)
Known for the forested region of Transylvania. (2007)
Its capital is Bratislava. (2004)
Situated above Croatia. (2004)
The home of the bull fight. (1986)
Another home of the Vikings situated between Finland and Norway. (1995)